Two More Face Death In Cuba

SANTIAGO, Cuba (UPI) — The prosecution has asked a "revolutionary tribunal" here to condemn an anti Communist saboteur to death by firing squad, it was announced today.

The defendant, Rodolfo Cespedes Boix, was charged with planting a bomb at the local Communist party headquarters.

There also were unconfirmed reports that another of Premier Fidel Castro's courts had been asked to decree death for Maj. Humberto Sori Marin, a pioneer Castroite who used to be a revolutionary judge himself.

Reliable sources said Sori and 20 companions had been arrested secretly and hurried to trial on charges of "counter-revolutionary activities."

THEY OBJECT

Cuba's conventional courts, never overly friendly to the Castro regime, dealt its another rebuff last night when the Havana Circuit Court defeated a Castroite resolution 13 to 8.

The resolution would have identified the court with the regime and declared that its judges "never have been coerced in their judicial functions."

Cuban Exiles Preparing A Blacklist

An organization of exiled Cuban businessmen and industrialists is preparing a blacklist of merchants and firms still doing business with Fidel Castro's Communist dictatorship in Cuba.

AREC, the initials for the Association for the Economic Reconstruction of Cuba, states that the blacklisted firms, both Cuban and foreign, will not be able to operate in Cuba when a democratic form of government is re-established there.

"This will be the penalty applied to those forgetting ethical principles and showing a complete lack of scruples to make an easy dollar by collaborating with Cuba's Communist government," a statement issued by AREC said.
